Monday, October 06, 2014 Day 30	Tuesday, October 07, 2014 Day 31	Wednesday, October 08, 2014 Day 32	Thursday, October 09, 2014 Day 33	Friday, October 10, 2014 Day 34
Grade 8 Social Studies	Grade 8 Social Studies	Grade 8 Social Studies	Grade 8 Social Studies	Grade 8 Social Studies
Student Friendly Objective: Students will review for the Quarter 1 Exam while playing games for review.

Instructional Plan: Review Game stations

Students will rotate through 3 game stations Memory- match terms Ipads- Quizlet Triangle Puzzle

Assessment: QCA 1- Tuesday Oct 7 | Assessment: All students will take the 1st Quarter Assessment. Accomodated Version and Oral Available. | The student is expected to... » explain the issues surrounding important events of the American Revolution, including declaring independence; writing the Articles of Confederation; fighting the battles of Lexington, Concord, Saratoga, and Yorktown; enduring the winter at Valley Forge; and signing the Treaty of Paris of 1783.[8.4C]

Student Friendly Objective: Students can learn the issues surrounding the events of the American Revolution while listening and watching a video.

Instructional Plan: Students who were absent will take their Q1 Assessment. All other students will watch the America the Story of US: Revolution. Students will complete questions as they view the video.

Assessment: Teachers will take up the video questions as a grade. | Student Friendly Objective: Students can demonstrate understanding of first quarter objectives while recalling information.

Instructional Plan/Assessment All students should now be finished taking the Q1 assessment. Teachers will reteach and allow students time to reflect on their test. All students will participate and identify errors on their test. | Student Friendly Objective: Students will demonstrate an understanding of Quarter 1 Objectives while retesting over content.

Instructional Plan/Assessment All students will complete the retest over Q1.

Students who have finished the retest will begin on Revolution Vocabulary. |